About the International Women's Day Fun Run presented by National Storage

On Sunday 12 March more than 15 000 women, men and children will create a sea of pink through the streets of Brisbane, as they complete a 5km walk/run to help raise vital funds for practical breast cancer support services and breast cancer research at Mater. This event is operating in accordance with the Queensland Government Covid Safe requirements.

Together we're helping women with breast cancer.

The International Women's Day Fun Run presented by National Storage raises much needed funds to provide practical tangible support for women with breast cancer along with investing in potentially life-saving cancer research right here in Queensland.

Ultimately, the funds raised from this event will help women with breast cancer today and save lives tomorrow.
