

Give your fundraising a boost!

Check out the list below for more ideas and inspiration.

Make a self donation

One of the easiest ways to kickstart your fundraising is to make a donation to your own fundraising page.

Ask for support

Reach out to your friends, family and colleagues to let them know you're supporting Smiddy to make a difference for those affected by cancer, and ask them to make a donation to show their support.

Share your 'why'

If you've been touched by cancer in some way, share your story on your Smiddy fundraising page or on social media to help give people even more reason to support you.

Host a movie night

Pick your favourite movie, invite around your friends and family and ask them to make a donation for their attendance.

Do the coffee run

Offer to order coffee for your colleagues, charging a commission for your time. Donate the profits to your Smiddy fundraising page.

Host a free dress day

If your work usually requires a uniform, chat to your team about organising a free dress day for a donation to your Smiddy fundraising page.

Host a lunch and learn

Tap into the skills of those in your team and put on a lunch and learn for your colleagues. Ask your manager if they can supply lunch, and encourage attendees to make a donation in exchange for learning something new!

Organise a charity sports day

Whether it's golf, tennis or another sport, chat to your local club about hosting a charity day with proceeds donated to your fundraising page.

Krispy Kreme fundraiser

Did you know that Krispy Kreme sells discounted donuts to help you fundraise? Search 'Krispy Kreme fundraising' to find out how to order, and for information about the recommended selling price.

Start a bad habits jar

Got a habit you're trying to kick? For every time you catch yourself falling back into your habit, drop a gold coin or two into the jar.

Turn your hobby into a fundraiser

Your graphic design, baking, IT or landscaping skills could be used to raise extra cash to support your Smiddy fundraising efforts.

Collect spare change

Set up a container (like a money box) in a prominent spot in your workplace where people passing by can drop in their spare change.

Fire up the karaoke machine

Whether you hire a karaoke machine or take your mates to a local karaoke hotspot, you're in for a fun night! Ask your guests to make a donation to your Smiddy fundraising page (on top of any entry fees) to attend.

Encourage a packed lunch

Ask your colleagues to bring a packed lunch, and donate what they would have paid for a takeaway lunch to your fundraising page instead.
